General discussion was held as to the function of the City and should they restrict themselves to the areas of providing facilities and coordinating group-sponsored activities or enter into the actual areas of conducting the activities themselves. The consensus of the group was that they should continue with provision of facilities and to help in coordination of group-sponsored activities, but that they should not actually contemplate starting new activities until some organized group approaches the Commission.

It was agreed that the

The repairing of a broken rock wall and the restoring of the posts and chain link gate at the east entrance, plus the paving of approximately 2400 square feet at both east and west entrances on the south side have greatly improved the appearance of the place and are another step forward in the plans of the Board of Directors for the protection and beautification of this hallowed spot.

'Pageant of Roses' Featured At Rose Hills

Local rose lovers were invited today to enter their prize roses and to attend the fifth annual Thanksgiving Rose Show scheduled next Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 9 and 10, in the "Pageant of Roses Garden" at Rose Hills Memorial Park.

The show, which is expected to draw nearly 1,000 cut flower and rose arrangement entries, is co-sponsored by Rose Hills and the American Rose Society's Pacific Southwest District.

John van Barneveld, ARS district director, has announced that there is no entry or admission fee at any show in the Rose Hills garden and ample free parking also is available.

The garden, an official American Rose Society display and test garden containing thousands of rose bushes of 356 varieties, is open to the public without charge daily during daylight hours throughout the year.

"Members of the rose societies in the Southwest District will be at the show to help entrants name their roses properly and place them in the right class," vanBarneveld said.

"Entries should be delivered to the garden between 7 and 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9. Following the judging, the show will be open to the public from noon to 5 p.m. on that day and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 10."

R. L. McNitt Jr., Rose Hills president, has announced that there will be a number of special awards at the show in addition to the 18 trophies, many prizes and hundreds of ribbons usually offered by Rose Hills in the more than 150 horticultural and arrangement classes.

"For example," he will give a one-year membership in the American Rose Society to any blue ribbon winner who has never been a member of a rose society," McNitt said, "and purchase orders for $10 worth of rose bushes also are offered in numerous classifications.

In the rose arrangement competition, the awards will include valuable flower arranging stands and vases."

McNitt said complete details regarding awards and classifications are given in a rose show schedule which may be obtained free of charge by telephoning, writing or visiting Rose Hills.

The season will open on Nov. 22 with the prize winning "Beast in the Cave." During the Christmas season a new musical version of "The Christmas Carol" will be presented, followed by James Thurber's "The 13 Clocks," "The Mystery Rocker" and other delightful hours of fun and fantasy.

Entertainment

For a truly old world atmosphere why not take a short ride out Highway 66 to Glendora and spend an evening at the BAVARIAN HAFBRAU HAUS. They feature German and American dishes including a special luncheon for only $1.10. You can purchase many delicacies at their delicatessen including fine imported Beers and Wines. If you want to join in a really good time stop in on a Friday or Saturday night and dance to the Polka Band from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Care for a riddle? If I have two coins equaling 55 cents and one isn't a nickel, what is it? . . . Answer: It has to be a half dollar.

If fish is your dish the finest place you can enjoy Sea Foods is at the LOSTER HOUSE on East Foothill in the Upper Hastings Ranch Shopping Center in Pasadena. Owned and operated by the Castagnola Seafoods Company the food is brought direct from their boats to your table. The restaurant is decorated in authentic ships decor, and is open for lunch and dinner every day.

It is too bad such wonderful entertainment like the Arthur Lyman concerts this past week-end at the ROYAL TAHITIAN on Riverside Drive in Ontario are few and far between. Some one as famous and as popular as this has many engagements to fulfill and we can only hope the ROYAL TAHITIAN can get him back again in the very near future.

Care for a joke? This grasshopper goes into the bar sits on a stool and orders a drink. The bartender stares at him in amazement then says, "Say fella did you know they have a drink named after you?" Now it's the grasshoppers' turn to be amazed as he asks, "You mean to tell me they have a drink called an Irving?"

The patrons in the cocktail lounge at THE BRASSerie in Pomona got a big kick out of finding themselves in the company of TV star Richard Boone. He caused quite a lot of excitement, especially among the females. Seems he and the crew of his new TV Series were on location for a few days at nearby Brackett Field Airport.

With the opening of Santa Anita race track not far off, the talk is getting real horsey at the CLOWN TOWN on Huntington Drive in Arcadia. Here is one tip I guarantee, this is a place that swings and everybody has fun. Try it some night soon, entertainment nightly at the piano bar.

The COVINA DINNERHORN at Azusa and San Bernardino Road, in Covina, is staging an "Opportunity

The Arcadia Auxiliary of the Methodist Hospital will present the Ninth Annual Holiday Homes Tour on Friday, Dec. 6, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Ushering in the Christmas season for Arcadians and their friends, this benefit is the culmination of a year's preparation by Auxiliary members under the direction of Mrs. Spencer Glaspell, chairman, and Mrs. William Schoonmaker, co-chairman.

As in the past years, four homes, each one representative of a particular style of architecture and decor will be decorated to exemplify the spirit of the holiday season and will be prepared by professional decorators. All the homes are located in Arcadia.

There is the spacious colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory P. Sawyer, 1220 Rancho Road. This home will be decorated for Christmas by Betty Willis Interiors of Arcadia. Mrs. Wynne Going will act as the auxiliary's coordinator there.

Mrs. Jack Talon will serve as auxiliary coordinator at the elegant Stephen A. Compas home, 1005 Fallen Leaf Rd. Margarete of Monrovia will be the decorator. As usual the Cookie House will be part of the tour and homemade cookies will be available at the Compas home.

The modern Japanese home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Steyer, 2081 Carolwood Dr. is next on the list. Gladys Herndon of La Canada will be the decorator. Home coordinator, Mrs. Louis Randall and committee will serve as hostesses here.

Last is the lovely contemporary home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Ulett, 815 Hampton Road. Betty Dickerson of Trilba Gherkins of Sierra Madre is the decorator. Mrs. Albert Rogers is the home coordinator.

In order to protect the lovely homes, all patrons of the tour are requested to wear low heeled shoes.

In addition to the four homes, Auxiliary president Mrs. Jerry Luboviski invites tour guests to enjoy the Tea House in the gay atmosphere of the Santa Anita Turf Club. Mrs. James J. Flinn and Mrs. Gerald Burton are chairman and co-chairman of the Tea House.

Mrs. Frank Jennings is in charge of the decorations and Mrs. David Ragains is in charge of the hostesses. Tea, coffee, and Danish pastries will be served from 10 a.m. to noon and the famous dessert pastries in the afternoon and evening. Husbands of auxiliary members, wearing white jackets and red Christmas ties will be an added attraction as they serve as bus boys.

Also at the Turf Club, Holiday Boutique will feature gift items hand fashioned by auxiliary members at weekly workshops throughout the year. Edible specialties, treats and sweets for holiday giving and entertaining will be on sale under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Neuberger.

All proceeds of the Holiday Homes Tour benefit the Methodist Hospital. Each year the Arcadia Auxiliary entertain approximately 3,000 guests who have made possible about $75,000 earmarked for use by the hospital. Mrs. William Gibbs and Mrs. David Ragains are the advisors for the event.

Sierra Madre Girls Present Tunes

Sierra Madreans Patty Miller and Linda Westman are among 70 young people from St. Luke's Episcopal Church who presented "Teen Tunes" variety show at Clifton Junior High School auditorium in Monrovia.

Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller of 410 N. Sunnyside and Linda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westman of 424 E. Grand View. A former Sierra Madre girl, Ruthanne Meyer, is also in the show. "Teen Tunes" was the result of the St. Luke's Church Camp and the effort of the campers to bring some of the fun and spirit of their summer experiences to their families and friends.

It included many favorite camp songs and some of the specialties, stunts and skits of Talent Night. Camp guests who joined the show were TV actor Don Porter (of the Ann Southern Show) and his wife Peggy, and the musical combo of Jim and Doris Nichols.

Proceeds of the show will go for camperships for next summer's camp and to meet other needs of the St. Luke's young people.

The breakfast is being sponsored by the newly reactivated Holy Name Society that has replaced the Parish Men's Club. The breakfast will be the first activity for the new organization and will be devoted to acquainting men of the parish with one another. The only business to be conducted will be a very brief description of the goals of the organization and introduction of the 1963-64 officers.

The new officers are: Paul Bukunt, president; Jack Werner, vice president; James Lyons, secretary; Larry Pryar, treasurer; and Frank Corrigan, marshal. Father McGovern is chaplain for the Society.

All men of the parish are invited to receive communion at the 7:15 Mass prior to the breakfast. Marshal Frank Corrigan asks that the men gather at the main entrance of the church at 7:05 so that they may enter as a group.

Property Tax

after the $100 householder's exemption has been subtracted.

The total assessed value, against which the tax rate is applied, is the sum of just the last two items, Net Real and Net Personal Property.

Watson would like every taxpayer to check the fairness of his assessment on his home. Since the assessment should be 25 per cent of market value, all you have to do is multiply the total of Land and Improvements by four.

In the example given, this figure your property is worth $20,000 on the market.

"If your assessment works out at more than your honest opinion of the market value of your property, we want to hear from you," Watson said.

"If our assessment works out at less than your honest opinion of market value, we don't really expect to hear from you," Watson continued. But you'll undoubtedly be hearing from us."

Next year's reappraisal program is concentrating on those assessments which are most out of line with current market value. Watson explained.

So anyone whose assessment is either much too high or much too low can expect a change next year.

CHILD BIRTH In the GOOD OLD DAYS

Few families would care to go back to "the good old days" of childbirth. Death of mothers was common place, often because doctors had no drugs adequate for fighting infection. In 1915 one of every 164 mothers died in childbirth, or from complications of her pregnancy.

Many of these mothers could have been saved by only a few dollars' worth of today's medicines.

Now only one mother in 3,125 dies. Much of the credit for this improvement is due to the new prescription drugs. Their cost is surprisingly low. In fact, only 15 prescriptions in a thousand cost as much as $10. The average one costs only $3.26. No wonder we say: "Today's prescription is the biggest bargain in history."

Bible Lessons Announced For November 10

The following passage from Psalms (37:23) will be read at this Sunday's services in all Christian Science churches. "The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way."

The Bible Lesson is entitled "Adam and Fallen Man." Related readings from the text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "We must look where we would walk, and we must act as possessors, ing all power from Him in whom we have our being" (p. 264).

FLOURNOY REPORT

by Assemblyman
Houston I. Flournoy
49TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

This seems to be the season for California's state officials to be off circling the globe in every direction, and as a result it is sometimes difficult to know just who is minding the store in Sacramento.

Currently there is the spectacle of Jesse "Big Daddy" Unruh, billed as an educational specialist, on a speaking tour of colleges and universities in the Far East. California's Democratic czar is flying round-trip by jet to six countries in the Far East. The total cost to the taxpayer will be at least $2,375.

Unruh's Asian tour is sponsored by the State Department's Educational and Cultural Exchange Program. Somehow he has been deemed qualified as a kind of lecturing scholar for a program which is supposed to permit "American specialists in many fields such as athletics, history and linguistics to lecture in the area and establish close association with Asian leaders in their respective fields of interest."

How the State Department identifies Unruh as an educational specialist is a mystery. The department relies heavily on the fact that Unruh is a regent of the University of California and a trustee of the State College System. However, Unruh has attended a total of one out of 44 regent and committee meetings held during the past two years since he became a member of the Board of Regents. His role as trustee of the State College System has been equally undistinguished. There he has put in two appearances at 20 regular meetings since his appointment in October, 1961. To further justify its designation of Unruh as an educator, the State Department points to his one week as a Chubb fellow at Yale. But it is significant that Chubb fellows are traditionally politicians, not educators.

In addition to his assignment to discuss the impact of education on a free society with our Far Eastern neighbors, Unruh presumably is to serve the general purposes of the Exchange Program, including the objectives of "identifying the United States with the aspirations of the Asian people for government and institutions responsive to the people and to encourage orderly political, economic and social progress."

On examining this high-sounding phrase, I wonder if Big Daddy will include lectures on:

1. How to lock up members of the opposing party.
2. How to strip members of the opposition of all vestiges of authority.
3. How to recruit paid political precinct squads and how much to pay them.
4. The role of "the boss" in American politics.

No doubt, most of the persons involved in the Educational Exchange Program are qualified and dedicated. Such a program can have potentially beneficial results for the United States in many ways. But when politics manipulates the program to such an extent that Jesse Unruh appears in the robes of a scholar, something is obviously wrong. The unfortunate result of this masquerade is that the whole program begins to seem ludicrous.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor: In a letter published in your newspaper Oct. 24, 1963, Mr. John H. Curtis expresses alarm at communist speakers addressing university students. I share neither his concern nor his point of view.

The avowed purpose of any university is the pursuit of truth and a successful pursuit obtains only in an atmosphere of intellectual freedom. Freedom to examine all ideas and all points of view relating to a given subject. If certain areas for examination and certain points of view are arbitrarily blocked off from those seeking an answer; an honest conclusion is impossible.

Mr. Curtis would fight an idea by hiding that idea and stopping the mouths of its proponents. To successfully fight something one must be able to see it and to understand it. An idea is fought by careful examination and resulting understanding; not by concealment.

Fear is usually the result of ignorance and Mr. Curtis proposes ignorance. He sets himself up as the self-appointed ultimate censor. He denies the ability of young adults to make their own decisions. Mr. Curtis advocates the denial of the free exchange of ideas, whereas the essence and the very hope of a democratic society is an enlightened electorate. He would pull his own iron curtain over certain areas of intellectual examination; Contrarywise, the essence of a totalitarian society is the dictation of concepts and ideas and the restriction and elimination of opposing view points. If we follow this gentleman's proposals to their logical conclusions we find that he espouses not Americanism but rather the quintessence of totalitarianism, communist or otherwise.

Mr. Curtis implies that he has great fears of communism and its menace. Undoubtedly his fears are real but they are misdirected. What he really fears is the American people and their ability to reach intelligent decisions on their own.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Curtis' faith in what he calls Americanism is not equated with a similar faith in Americans.

THOMAS R. ANDREW JR.
800 Skyland Drive

they could not permit their countrymen to be told what to think. Now we must fight communism, so that we shall never be told what to think.

How shall we engage in this battle? Shall we start by telling our people what to think? The "real voice of patriotic Americans" must, for the sake of all those who gave their lives and efforts to make our country great, cry, "NO!"

In fighting the Communists, we must not defeat our purpose by utilizing their tactics. Let us assume, for the sake of argument, that we are all good, and the Communists are all bad. This only emphasizes the strength of our principles.

Regardless of whether we are all good or whether we do have some grave sins, our principles ARE great.

Such being the case, any honest man must ask: "Since our nation and its principles are so great, why should be shake in terror of being attacked or criticized? Are our truths unable to stand against the lies of the Communists?"

To deny freedom of speech (except under the Smith Act) to any man is to deny the principle upon which our nation is founded. Such a denial is an admission that these lies could stand against the strength of our truths. Can any patriotic American make such an admission?

I am proud to live in a nation that permits me to think, to prove that our truths are greater than any lies, and to express my beliefs through such means as letters to editors.

I was proud to be in an audience that had the fairness to listen to Dorothy Healey without resorting to such violence or suppression as would be indulged by the cause she espouses. I was proud to be in an audience that strikingly withheld applause (with exception of a handful of adult agitators). I was proud to be in an audience that through intelligent questioning scored some points on its own and spread some doubts even in the mind of Dorothy Healey. I am proud to live in a nation that has the opportunity to prove the words of one of her former Presidents: "Truth is no crumble—she can stand alone."

DAR To Hear Civil Defense Director Speak

Dear Editor: Re: Oct. 24 Letters to Editor:

As a student at the Los Angeles branch of what is acknowledged as one of our nation's greatest universities, and as a lifelong resident of Sierra Madre, I feel obligated to respond to what I trust was an unintentional affront to the dignity of American democracy.

The greatness of our nation is preserved by the great principle that no man has the right to command us to think as he does. The first settlers of our nation came because they would not be told what to think. The patriots of the Revolutionary War fought because they would not be told what to think. The fathers of our Constitution framed these great principles so that they and their descendants could not be told what to think. Our soldiers gave their lives in two World Wars, in Korea, and now in Viet Nam because

Mr. Harold K. Schone, Civil Defense Director of Arcadia, will address Santa Anita Chapter, D.A.R., at their regularly scheduled meeting on Nov. 7.

Mr. Schone, who is also Arcadia's city manager, will discuss what has been done, and future plans regarding local civil defense.

Brief reports will be made on the Southern Council meeting, which was held on Oct. 22, at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. Council was attended by Mrs. Leonard J. Black, regent, will include plans to help nearby American Indians have a merry Christmas.

Mr. Glen Lipscomb was the speaker of the day.

Not So Dumb

A long time ago a vice-presidential candidate won his ticket no votes, and himself only a moment of oblique fame, when he told an audience of Nebraska farmers they were "too damn dumb" to understand federal policies.

No so long ago Kennedy administration officials made it very clear they thought the wheat farmers of the nation were too damn dumb to understand the effect of voting down planting controls under federal subsidy, and predicted dire results. So what did the dumb farmers do?

At least in Kansas, the nation's largest wheat growing state, they are planting fewer acres for the very simple reason that they are smart enough to know — and always have been — the unbridled planting will create surpluses and force down open market prices. They wanted to go back toward the days when the law of supply and demand was the only restriction on their handling of their investment of time, land, seed, money and brainpower.

No one knows for sure, of course, whether the Kansas pattern will be followed in all other wheat states. But it makes sense. And it baffles some government experts. Which are two good reasons for going along with it.

The Best Available

President Kennedy's appointment of Franklin Roosevelt, Jr. to succeed Luther Hodges as secretary of commerce did not come as a surprise, but it certainly spotlighted once more the meaninglessness of a special promise made by Candidate Kennedy in 1960.

During the presidential campaign Senator Kennedy declared: "Should I be elected president, it would be my intention to ask the ablest men in the country to make whatever sacrifice is required to bring to the government a ministry of the best available talent . . . All appointments, both high and low, will be made on the basis of ability."

When FDR Jr. was made undersecretary of commerce last January it was common knowledge that the move — with the probable succession to the secretaryship — was made to increase his political whammy in New York, where he wants to run against Nelson Rockefeller for governor. Nothing in his background indicates that he is the "best available" man for the commerce position. Political affinity is his greatest qualification.

Not long ago the President made a similar politically oriented appointment, that of John A. Gronouski to be postmaster general. Mr. Gronouski has no knowledge of the post office, no experience in any business, and only limited experience as Wisconsin's commissioner of taxation. There was little hesitancy in administration circles about admitting that his appointment was a payoff for supporting Kennedy in the Wisconsin primary in 1960.

Mr. Kennedy isn't the first president to give important posts to party hacks, of course. But few have been so oratorically specific as to their intention not to do so.

Would It Help?

A number of bills now before Congress propose that the standard workweek of 40 hours be shortened in order to help solve the vexing unemployment problem.

At the same time, however, the proposals demand that pay for the shorter week would be as much as for the present workweek.

This, the argument goes, would be necessary to maintain purchasing power.

Contrary to these claims, the obvious result would be to force up prices for commodities and services, because the cost of wages would outrun productivity.

So, one result would be price inflation.

Another result would be to impair the ability of U.S. industry to meet foreign competition — which becomes tougher and tougher with its advantages of lower basic costs.

So, in the long run, there is the gloomy risk that a shorter workweek accompanied by higher hourly wage rates would increase, not decrease, unemployment, because people would probably buy fewer higher priced products.

As one high government official stated, proposals to "arbitrarily reduce the workweek are self-defeating expedients which would tend to restrict the economy, not expand it."

Our 'Unimportant' Debt

It is the favorite cliché of the big spenders to pooh-pooh fears over the enormous growth of the national debt. Why worry? they ask. We only owe it to ourselves.

OK. Here is an indication of what we owe us. Every hour of the day, seven days a week, 52 weeks a year, we taxpayers are shelling out one million dollars in interest on what "we owe ourselves."

Every family of four already is in hock "to itself" for $6,536.48 as its share of the national debt.

And that's just the present status of our debt to ourselves. Our benefactors in government are constantly "loaning" us more of our own money — to continue their tortured simile. For just one example, they're hiring 1000 new governmental employees every week.

All of which is unimportant, of course. If you don't worry about money.

FREEDOM

At Any Price

By H. V. Witty

Barry Goldwater represented one of the 19 minority Senate votes cast against the Test-Ban Treaty. The Senator from Arizona tells us:

"I do not vote against the hope of peace, but only against the illusion of it. I do not vote for war, but for the strength to prevent it."

"I have been told, as have others, I am sure, that to vote against this treaty is to commit political suicide."

"I will vote against this treaty because in my heart, mind, soul and conscience, I feel it detrimental to the strength of my country."

"If it means political suicide to vote for my country and against this treaty, then I commit it gladly. It is not my future that concerns me. It is my country — and what my conscience tells me is how best I may serve it."

Congratulations, Senator Goldwater, for being one of the few who placed conscience above politics! As Patrick Henry once said: "Being in the minority is not the mark of failure; being in the wrong is."

According to an Allen-Scott Report: "Attorney General Robert Kennedy's future role in the administration and the 1964 presidential election could be greatly influenced by polls being taken in several politically strategic states."

"Under the personal direction of President Kennedy, a nationally-known polling group is making a survey in Oklahoma on what the voters think of the President's brother, his close relationship with the President, and whether his presence in the Cabinet will hurt the President's chances for re-election."

If the results of the poll indicate that Bobby is dragging the President's popularity, then, undoubtedly, little brother will resign his Cabinet post. Then, if big brother is re-elected, Bobby could either be returned to the Cabinet as Attorney General or possibly enough pressure could be exerted by the administration on J. Edgar Hoover to force his resignation. Bobby could then become Director of the F.B.I. Wouldn't that be a happy situation . . . for Khrushchev!

A few days ago Theodore Jackman confided to this columnist that the Russians were opening a new department store in the United States. This sounded incredible, but, sure enough, the documentation came through. An AP release, datelined Moscow, September 22, appeared in the Chicago Tribune, Monday, September 23, 1963.

This release was not made by Tass in Moscow until they were assured the Disarmament Agency's Nuclear Test Ban Treaty would be ratified by our Senators. The AP release stated: "A Soviet department store will open in Washington, probably in October, the Soviet news agency Tass said today. Tass said a three-story building has been rented in downtown Washington and will feature Soviet appliances as well as 'traditional' Russian goods."

It has recently been reported in the press that Nathaniel Colley, NAACP official, has resigned from the State Board of Education. His reason for resignation was reportedly "the press of personal business." If this is the valid reason, why then did the District Attorney of Sacramento and the United States Attorney in San Francisco, state that an investigation of Nathaniel Colley had been closed? . . . What kind of an investigation was closed? . . . An investigation of what? . . . A letter to Dr. Max Rafferty, Superintendent of Public Instruction, 721 Capitol Mall, Sacramento 14, California, asking the question: why did Colley resign and is it true that an investigation was closed, — might bring some interesting results!

According to U.S. News and World Report, the price for government officials could go up. "Under a bill introduced in the House, October 7, with bipartisan sponsorship:

"The pay of Senators and Representatives would be raised from the present $22,500 to $35,000 a year. "Cabinet members would get increases from $25,000 to $40,000."

"Supreme Court Justices would be raised from $45,000 to $60,000."

"The bill was sponsored by Representatives Morris Udall (Dem.), or Arizona, and Joel T. Brayhill (Rep.), of Virginia. The raises had been recommended to President Kennedy by a Presidential advisory commission. First opposition came from H. R. Gross (Rep.), of Iowa, who called the increases 'unconscionable.'"

Representative Victor Wickersham (D. Okla.), recently came out with this jewel: "In thousands of schools today, students are violating the spirit, if not the letter of the Supreme Court ruling (banning prayer). School authorities have ordered prayers or Bible readings continued as a part of school policy, in direct defiance of the court's ruling. 'This,' says Wickersham, 'is one ruling which cannot really be enforced. You cannot send in federal troops to do battle with God.'"

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

10 Years Ago November 5, 1953

The parade theme for the Pasadena Tournament of Roses is "Famous Books in Flowers." Sierra Madre's entry will depict a scene from "Treasure Island." Artist Alfred J. Dewey's design for the Sierra Madre entry was registered this week.

The trend for Yuletide decorations this year will be toward the old fashioned variety. The goal is a fully decorated tree in a red base in front of each business house.

A gold-plated gas meter was turned on last week in formal ceremonies, celebrating the 100,000th meter in San Gabriel Valley. A special press preview was held to which mayors of valley towns were invited.

November 12, 1953

In defiance of Friday the 13th, superstitions, or possibly to account for any (unanticipated) sour notes in the brass section, the Sierra Madre Concert band will present its final concert of the year tomorrow night in the auditorium of the city school.

20 Years Ago November 11, 1943

Sierra Madreans who failed to apply for their No. 4 War Ration Books during the recent registration at the grammar school may register for and receive them at the city hall next week.

Through the courtesy of the U.S. Forest Service, the local Forest Fire Fighters Service organization has secured two films to be shown at the city hall on Friday.

The announcement was made that the pupils of the grammar school have gone over the top in the "Triple Threat" contest and have raised enough money selling War Stamps to buy a Jeep, a Grasshopper, and a Quack for the army.

Relatives and friends still have time to send men and women overseas V-Mail notices of War Bond gifts for Christmas. War Bonds for Christmas gifts help hold down inflationary buying of scarce merchandise.

Plans for an active campaign to raise funds necessary to maintain the two Sierra Madre Boy Scout Troops, were completed on Monday at a meeting in the home of Colonel H. B. Hersey.

The funny men of the screen, Laurel and Hardy, will be seen in "The Midnight Patrol," together with W. C. Fields, Allison Skipworth and Baby Le Roy in "Tillie and Gus," at the Lyric next week.

Trick or Treat Leftovers

The ghosts and goblins weren't very kind to Old Hankus last week. There were a heckofa lot more tricks than treats in the pigskin picking department. As a matter of fact the little woman has hidden all the razor blades and ant poison. Nine wins and 11 losses drops the season's total to 89-5-46 for 65 percent. Taint bad but sure could be a lot better.

Have you ever noticed how things can be going badly, everything is wrong, and then all of a sudden for no reason at all, they get worse?

THIS WEEK'S GASSERS, are 20 of the toughest tilts in the book. Why doesn't Army play Slippery Rock. That one we could pick.

PHOENIX to whip PCC by three TDs. Even a real good team doesn't have much chance when they tangle with the Bears on their own lot. The Lancers surprised Pierce last week, but Phoenix mangled the Brahmas 33-0.

MUIR over Glendale by a touchdown. Stick with the winners I always say.

PASADENA to bounce back from 14-13 loss to Arcadia by trouncing Crescenta Valley 20-7.

U.S.C. over Stanford by at least three scores. The Trojans are like a rubber ball. Up and down.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY to trip UCLA's Bruins up in the high altitude country. WASHINGTON over California by 10 but the Bears will be waiting in Strawberry Canyon.

INDIANA to nudge Oregon State but it sure will be close.

ARKANSAS by a field goal over the Rice Owls in a Southwest goodie.

MISS STATE to upset unbeaten Auburn. How do you like those apples?

BAYLOR to upset Texas 15-14 and throw the national picture into a big mess.

FLORIDA to six over Georgia.

ILLINOIS smelling roses should be able to handle Michigan by say 10 points.

IOWA over Minnesota on the Haweyes home lot.

KANSAS to sneak past Nebraska with a bowl bid probably at stake. T.C.U. over L.S.U. but don't bet the family jewels on this one.

PURDUE to upset Michigan State and really throw the Rose Bowl picture all out of focus.

WISCONSIN over fast fading Northwestern.

OHIO STATE to hold off Penn State by a field goal margin. I have another neighbor, Bob Eberhart, the insurance mogul, who is a big Buckeye alumnus. Bob is so sure Ohio State will be back on New Year's Day he is already ordering tickets.

I was forced to remind Bob of two rather pertinent scores. USC 32, Ohio State 3, and Washington 22, USC 7.

Come to think of it, I hope the Buckeyes do play in the Rose Bowl. That ought to be a wallet fatterer.

BEARS 24, Rams 14, and that is probably being generous.

CHARGERS 31, Boston Patriots 28.

ANN ROGERS wanted to know how the Dodger players were doing in their night club act. Scuttlebutt has it that Drysdale, Willis, Koufax and company aren't bad when they have the prompting of a real pro such as Milton Berle, but it is something else when they are on their own.

Kappa Delta Plan November Meet

The Pasadena Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Abbott, 1370 Avonlea Road, San Marino, on Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Leon Foley of Arcadia will preside.

Mr. Ronnie Hayes will present a program entitled "Wigs by Michaelangelo" and members of the organization will model a variety of wig styles and colors.

Coffee and dessert will be served by Miss Eleanor Pratt and Mmes. Charles W. Stephens, Gerald E. Murphy, and Donald E. Schmiedeburg.

All Kappa Deltas in the area are cordially invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. S. Leroy Bradley Jr., HI. 7-7059.

The Santa Fe Depot, which the Historical Society is trying to get relocated in the Arboretum, was built of bricks made by Baldwin's laborers. The iron was molded by them also. His other two daughters' names were Sarah and Clara.

Mr. Baldwin owned 80,000 acres around the Rancho.

The old school bell now hangs in the tower of the cottage and is rung on holidays and New Year's.

The Senior members did appreciate so very much the Historical Society inviting them to see and hear this wonderful report.

On Saturday, Nov. 9, Mrs. Warren Race and two of her Australian friends are coming to tell of life in the "Down Under Continent."

Four of the members went with the Arcadia Senior Citizens to Knott's Berry Farm Wednesday, Nov. 6.

She told how the area was a huge swamp land that extended from the Hugo Reid adobe to Colorado Ave. Hugo Reid, a scholar and adventurer sold this land for 20 cents an acre. He married a daughter of an Indian chief. Mr. Reid was not a businessman, but he did help establish the first Constitution of California.

E. J. Baldwin came here from Indiana. He was a rugged individualist. He was very thrifty, the son of a farmer-preacher. He closed the lagoon to hold the water. He made his money in the San Francisco Stock Exchange and the mines. He spent much time in Virginia City. It was there he met 16-year-old Jenny and married her. He built the Queen Ann Cottage for her as a "Fairly Tale Castle," but Jenny died of consumption, so he turned it into a mausoleum for her. All her clothes and trinkets were kept there.

Mr. Baldwin loved horses, so he had the stable built for them. His six-horse coach traveled from L. A. to the Rancho. His daughter, Anita, renamed the cottage "The Queen Ann Cottage."

Senior Citizens Shown As Real Active Citizens

The Sierra Madre News was awarded a Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of outstanding public service in behalf of America's Senior Citizens. This award came from the National Senior Center of Lehigh, Fla. The members of the Sierra Madre Senior Citizens' Club were so proud of this award and thank the kind editor of the Sierra Madre News for giving the club the publicity.

On Nov. 2 the group met at the Park House. After sandwiches and coffee, a short business meeting followed. Four of the group then tried out the shuffleboard court. At 2:30 they went to the City Hall to hear Mrs. Boyle of the Arboretum tell of the history of the Rancho. She also showed interesting colored slides. Mrs. Doyle has worked in four of the largest museums in California.

Public Utilities Approve Revision

The State Public Utilities Commission today approved a revision in the leased or private line schedules of California Water and Telephone Company which will result in savings estimated at $32,000 a year to 88 subscribers, generally industrial or business firms.

Thirteen present private line subscribers will have a total annual increase of $574, but not more than $6.65 a month to any single subscriber.

The revision, which will be effective Nov. 1, provides that when any portion of a private or leased line service is furnished by Pacific Telephone, the rates and conditions of that company will be applicable to the complete service.

California Water and Telephone serves telephone subscribers in San Fernando, Monrovia, Sierra Madre, Redlands, the Palm Springs area, India and Coachella.

Mrs. Damel had lived in California for 55 years and in Los Angeles County 45 years. She was originally from Idaho.

Survivors include her husband, John A. of Arcadia; a son Earl of Florida; a daughter, Mrs. William Sly of Las Vegas, and a sister, Mrs. Ina Barnes of Salem, Ore.

Arrangements were made by Rippel Mortuary, Sierra Madre.

Santa Anita Opens 55 Day Season Thursday, Dec. 26

With the California Horse Racing Board having approved nine-race programs for the complete 1963-1964 winter racing meeting at Santa Anita, post time for the first race with state law for the completion of a nine-race program. The law requires that the last event of the day be raced prior to sunset.

Santa Anita last season presented nine races per day during the final seven weeks of its meeting, after offering eight-race programs during the early portion of the meeting. Post time of 1 p.m. prevailed for the complete racing season without modification under that arrangement.

Santa Anita has announced its richest racing meeting for total estimated purses of $3,800,000, including 1,205,000 for 31 major stakes.

103 Enrolled in Claremont's Business Course

A record enrollment of 103 students from business and industry in the graduate business program leading to the degree of master of business economics at Claremont Graduate School and University Center, has been announced by Dr. Seymour Friedland, associate professor of economics and chairman of the committee on business economics.

Twenty-three area companies are represented in the program, as well as the U.S. Air Force, San Bernardino County, Los Angeles County, Claremont Graduate School and University Center and Mt. San Antonio College personnel.

The program, according to Friedland, is designed to introduce the business executive and the student of business to the intellectual tools required to command and understand the modern industrial environment. It includes work in economics, psychology, mathematics, administration, accounting and statistics.

Enrolled from Sierra Madre are Wesley Maurice, 175 W. Carter Ave., of Aerojet-General Corp., Azusa, and Keith Seegmiller, 181 E. Grand View Ave., of General Dynamics, Pomona.

Park & Recreation

ent and proposed activities to be conducted by the schools, churches, civic groups and other sponsoring groups so that the City can anticipate what types of programs should be planned for the next three to five years.

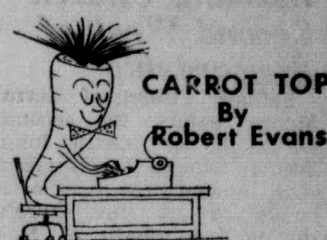

Since the next regular meeting will fall on Thanksgiving, the Commission moved to adjourn to Nov. 19 or 20.

The purpose behind these committees and meetings is to assure you that the treatment you are getting is of the highest quality. It eliminates intentional and abusive care. In the event you have been subjected to improper treatment, then you can be relatively sure that something will be done. You may conclude two important factors from this:

1. A doctor who is a member of the staff of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital has proven himself, voluntarily, to be of the highest standards.
2. Sierra Madre Community Hospital is providing you with quality care and good organization.

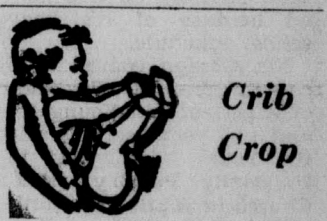

bird" for the Thanksgiving table. Better get your order in early and avoid the rush ... and of course that leaves only 39 shopping days until Christmas ... and the least item on our thoughts today is only 44 shopping days until your Federal Income Tax form is due ... and a mere 23 week-ends or 160-24 hour days until it is delinquent ... my, oh my, how time does fly.

Of course to make life more complicated we must not forget the personal property tax that becomes delinquent just prior to the Christmas shopping spree.

Now on the brighter side of life ... you can rest assured that Sierra Madre Merchants are planning on making this Christmas the best shopping area in Southern California ... already new bright and shiny merchandise is arriving, and soon the Chamber of Commerce will complete its plans for new and brighter decorations, which will lend itself to the spirit of the Holiday season approaching. All in all you will not have to go abroad this year to buy the gifts best suited for your purpose ... you can buy them all with your "Friendly Sierra Madre Merchant" who has made plans that this year you can shop at home in the "one gigantic shopping center, of Sierra Madre."

In closing the column for this week, let us state ... there is one advancement that has not as yet been made in our way of life ... I doubt seriously, if it has even been thought of, but ... manufacturers will soon stumble upon the fact that it will be all the rage to milady's handbags to put little lights inside which goes on when they are opened! ... see you around the square, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Bethany Church Second Week of Stewardship

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre enters its second week of the month long Sunday School Enlargement and Stewardship emphasis conducted at the church during the month of November. The theme for the month is "Christ Makes the Difference" and has found to be a real springboard for the ministry of the Sunday school and stewardship department in the church.

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor, announces that his theme for this coming Sunday will be "Our Stewardship in the Home." This message will be given at the 11 a.m. Worship Hour at which time the Chancel Choir will also minister and will be directed by Margaret Schaper. On Sunday evening at 7 the Rev. Harold Ankeny, minister of education at the church, will speak on the subject "Our Stewardship in Christian Education."

Superintendent John Kershaw announces that the Sunday school emphasis for the month has been much fruit, as increased attendance the past two Sundays has been a sign of real interest in the month's activities. Over a dozen of the Sunday school teachers and leaders attended the week-end convention held at Angelus Temple in Los Angeles and sponsored by the Greater Los Angeles Sunday School Association.

A contest during November is being conducted in competition with the Calvary Baptist Church of Monrovia. This attendance contest is based on a percentage of increase and whichever Sunday school gains the most during the month of November will be awarded special recognition and prize by the losing Sunday school. Both churches have enjoyed fellowship in the preparation for the contest and friendly competition is expected between the members of the two churches.

Mr. Judd Gordon, a Midler at Fuller Seminary in Pasadena, has recently been appointed as Bethany Church's new youth director. Mr. Ernie Richter who formerly held this position in the church was not able to give as much time to this vital ministry as was needed because of his heavy school schedule.

Mr. Gordon comes to the church from a background of experience in Young Life and two years serving with the Youth Ministry at the University Presbyterian Church in Seattle. His duties will include the overall coordination of the youth ministry in the church as well as individual counseling and planning for the youth activities during the school year and the summer vacation program. He attended last Tuesday the Southern California Youth Directors Fellowship Conference at Forest Home.

Bethany Church takes pride in announcing this recent addition to its ministerial staff and is now better equipped to minister to the spiritual needs of not only the youth of the community but every age group as well.

The church, located at 93 N. Baldwin, extends to interested friends and members of the community a cordial welcome to attend the services of the church.

Besides the regular Sunday services which begin at 9:30 a.m. with Sunday school there is a weekday meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays in which Pastor Schaper is now discussing "Great Theological Words" which have a

Kappa Kappa Gamma To Meet November 13

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Association of Pasadena will meet on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. William D. White in Flintridge.

A short business meeting will be conducted at 11 a.m. followed by a luncheon at 12:15 p.m. The chairman is Mrs. Joseph J. Ruff. At 1 p.m. there will be a treasure sale, chairman, Mrs. William Wooley.

mation from the minutes of the July 2, 1962, School Board meeting.

The former mathematics teacher concluded by saying that it appears to him that this entirely unreasonable spending binge had been made in an attempt to leave the treasury flat so that Superintendent Beall could proclaim to all that the funds were "adequate."

SM Woman's Club Displays Unusual Oil Paintings

A great deal of interest is being shown in the outstanding exhibit of oil paintings on the walls of the assembly room at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. Mrs. Mae Reich is the artist and the beautiful effects she obtains is due to the masterful handling of a paint knife, instead of a brush. The nine exhibits may be seen by appointment through the art chairman, Miss Grace Webber, EL 5-3066.

Mrs. A. J. Barkman, president, declares guests are always welcome and the club and luncheon reservations for the luncheon meetings on the second Wednesdays of each month may be made by phoning EL 5-8501 or EL 5-9123 by the foregoing Mondays.

Mrs. Barkman and Miss Clara Sykes attended the Verdugo District C.F.W.C. regular monthly meeting at the 20th Century Club of Eagle Rock on the 28th and took club donations in to the Los Angeles Indian Center on the same day.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to the provisions of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre, Section 9625, that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre has fixed Thursday, November 21, 1963, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers of the City of Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposed variance to reduce the front yard setback from 25 feet to 15 feet for property described as 300 Sturtevant Drive.

Parcel A having an area of 8883 sq. ft. and a frontage of 125.44 ft. and Parcel B having an area of 6463 sq. ft. and a frontage of 75.00 ft., both parcels thereby deviating from the code sections of the R-H zone which require a front yard setback of 25 feet and a frontage of 90 ft. for any parcel created.

On parcel A there is an existing non-conforming building in that it does not presently have the required 25 ft. setback from the street.

The application and map are on file in the office of the Secretary of the Planning Commission. The application alleges that there are special circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other properties in the same district and vicinity; that the granting of a variance as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice to other property in the vicinity thereof, in that the proposed variance, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the Planning Commission may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose of said City Zoning Code will be observed, public welfare and safety secured, and substantial justice done to all parties.

Interested persons may attend and be heard.

It seems to me there is an awful lot said these days about "togetherness." I think the last straw, however, to break the camel's back is the new togetherness sweater. They call it a "tweater," and it is designed with a body wide enough to hold "him and her" side by side with just two sleeves. What "him and her" are supposed to do with their other respective arms was not explained in the ad. I can imagine all sorts of ensuing complications from wearing this type of garment. I just can imagine what would happen if "he" wanted to go "his" way and "she" had to go "hers." It wouldn't be very handy in revolving doors, or if there was one seat left on the bus, and finally, who gets custody of the darned thing in case of divorce???

Talked to Mrs. Brewster Benedict the other day and learned that the Kinneloa Canyon Club met at her home this last Tuesday. They decided they would have a catching up time on what they were all doing in lieu of a program. They also made plans for a coming Christmas meeting.

The Benedicts just returned from a long weekend down in Palm Springs. They went down to attend the Blue Printers convention at the Riviera Hotel.

The surprise party of the week was held for Bill and Pat Olson. The invitations were sent, Western style by pony express to tell of the roundup party to place the Olson brand on their new home at 1455 Old House Road. The cowhands en-cos-tume, all met at the Eaton Canyon golf course Sunday morning at 9:30 a.m. They arrived with boots and war cries promptly at 10 a.m. on the Olson ranch and it was more than surprising that everyone didn't take for the hills upon their arrival. It sounded more like a band of wild Indians than a bunch of business men and their cow girls.

Before you could throw a calf, a chuck wagon table was set up with all sorts of exciting vittles to tickle the appetites of the ranch hands.

The party was planned and executed by the Robert (Bob and Carmen) Farmers, the Brewster (Bronco and Carol) Benedict, Forrest (and Jean) Paxon, the Don (Hopalong and Ethel) Hays, all former Pepperhill Road friends. They presented the Olsons with a lovely period lamp straight from the antique room of the Salvation Army. In order that they might build a plaque to commemorate the occasion they generously lined the shade with pieces of long green.

The roll call read something like this: Gordon and Fran Wright, Gene and Nancy Rode, Charlie and Phyl Hardison, Jim and Helen Fay, Mal and Gloria Murison, Al and Gerry Dunn, Al and Betty Knudson, Bob and Dorothy Mar-dian, Richard and Katy Fox, Ken and Peggy Christianson, Chuck and Marge Huckaby from Solvang, John and Ann Roberts, Matt and Jean Slavin, Tony and Lois Boland, Bill and Ginny Spaulding, Dom and Pat Giangregorio, Ernie and Toni Maurin, Dean and Kathy Snyder, Bud and Marty Newton, Alan and Betty Stearns, Jack and Toni Ryburn, Dean and Liz Barrieks, Mrs. Liza Olson, Mr. and Mrs. George Custer, and Miss Sue Batzer.

Dr. and Mrs. Linus Pauling of Fairpoint were honored at a tea last Saturday on the occasion of his latest Nobel Peace Prize. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Skipper Rostker and co-hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Phil Saur-enman and Mr. Fred H. Bobbyshell. There were 300 of the neighbors invited to share their happiness.

Mrs. Warner Bracher, Mrs. David Phillips, Mrs. Charles Goldsworthy, Mrs. Francis Webb, Mrs. William Casler, Mrs. Sam I. Joseph, Mrs. Robert Brydolf, Mrs. Joseph Philipson, Mrs. Harold Berg, and Dr. and Mrs. Pauling's daughter, Mrs. Barclay Kam presided at the tea tables throughout the afternoon. After the reception they took the Paulings out to dinner.

Forgot to mention last week that the Charles Klingermans from Wynn Road were among those from this area attending the A.I.A. convention in Mexico City. They too went on to Puerto Vallarta for a few days before returning home.

Was doing a little shopping last week at Macy's in Palo Alto before returning home and chanced to run in to Mrs. Edwin (Margaret) Pyle at the hat counter. She went up for the horse show at the Cow Palace. Later on while lunching at the Red Barn we ran into her again with her sister, Mrs. M. E. (Helen) Straughan. Helen is a real interesting person with a fascinating hobby. She cobbles and designs her own shoes.

Also saw May and Bill Friedrich while we were up there. They wanted to be remembered to all of their friends down here and I have a new address for your Christmas card file. They just moved recently so you might not have it: Mr. and Mrs. William Friedrich, 690 Sharon Park Drive, Apartment 15, Menlo Park. They are all very happy up there. Billy is a junior at the University of California at Berkeley. Bill Sr., is in real estate and doing very well.

The Roy Hoffmans of Criklewood Path were also up San Francisco way last week. They went up to attend the convention for the Engineering Geologists. They stayed at the new Jack Tar Hotel in the city and said it was just lovely.

YOUR . . . SIERRA MADRE . . . POLICE REPORT

Each year finds an increase in motor vehicle registrations. Highway builders are faced with the perplexing problem of trying to keep pace with the increased highway usage.

Urban parking problems increase proportionately with the increase of registered vehicles. This creates the situation where there is simply not enough parking space available in commercial areas which, by their very nature, attract large volumes of motor vehicles.

When there are not enough parking spaces available for the demand, a plan must be devised to increase usage of those spaces that are available, thence, the birth of "limited time" parking.

To set up a hypothetical case, assume there are 1,000 vehicles that frequent a particular commercial area which offers 250 on street parking stalls. If these vehicles were to occupy the available stalls on an all day basis, it is apparent that only 25 per cent of the 1,000 vehicles could avail themselves to the parking facility.

Alternately, if the 250 spaces become available every two hours, all 1,000 vehicles would have an opportunity to use the available space in an 8 hour period.

If motorists adhere to the time restriction, more spaces will become available through the day. To insure adherence, the Police Department must enforce the parking regulations.

The policy of the Department is clear. We would rather have parking space turn over than parking tickets issuance. However, the limited time parking areas will be patrolled and violators who do not chose to comply in the spirit of the law will be ticketed.

SM's Halloween Festivities Prove Fun-Safe

The Sierra Madre Recreation Commission, in the interest of a safe Halloween, helped again this year, along with many volunteer groups for a highly successful evening for everyone.

The Kiwanis Club furnished judges and prizes for the best costumes.

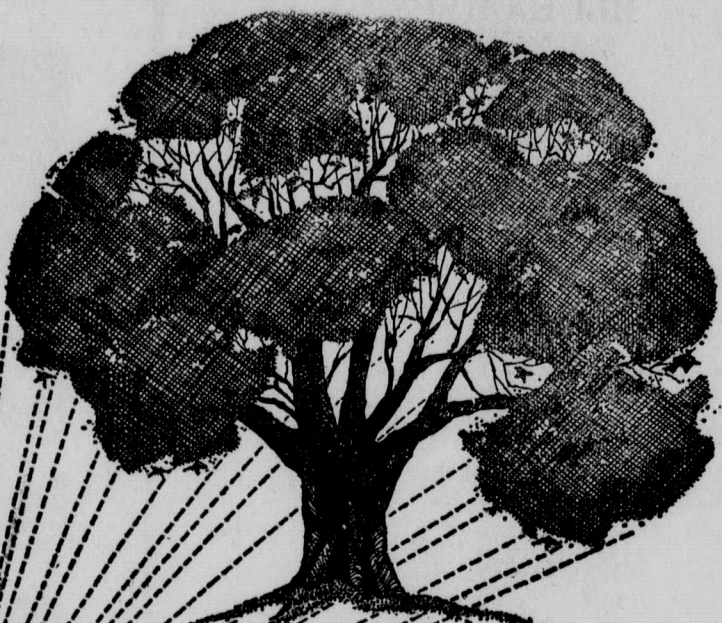

Children gathered at Kersting Court at 6:30, and as soon as the judging was over they all paraded to the Sierra Madre School Auditorium, under the guidance of the Volunteer Fire Department, Police Department and car clubs.

The children then marched across the stage, at which time the winners were given their prizes. The winners were: pre-school, Lauri Mason, Stephen Laird and Buddy Holcomb; kindergarten, Deama Raul, Melody Nobel and Thomas Zimmerman; first grade, Vicky Brown, Bengie Rillorta and Monet Orr; second grade, Diana Wilder, Mark Armstrong and Wendy Ellet; third grade, Bonnie Brose, Karyn Kinsel and Richard Barden; fourth grade, Ellen Miller, Craig Walters and Timmy Jones; fifth grade, Robert Borse, Bruce and Robert Bromley and Ann Parkert; Sixth grade, Pat Myers, Robin Axelrod and Flora Willet.

Cartoons furnished by the Bethany Church were shown and the Lions Club presented each child with a candy treat as they left the auditorium.

Plans for a teenage dance in December and another in the spring are underway. A Halloween dance was not held due to the crowded junior and senior high schedule. Also due to a shortage of personnel and problems of arrangements, it was not possible to hold a window painting this year.
